"Europe is a bargain-hunter's paradise for Americans!"

"Live the life of a millionaire on a peasant's salary? You can do this in the balmy South Pacific!"

"Be charmed; be enchanted; be thrilled by the exotic customs of the Orient."

And the travel posters continue to chant their psychological ruses to entice Americans to travel in their faraway lands.

And nine times out of ten, the travel posters pronounce the truth—because travel is inexpensive.

Americans are born bargain hunters. Dollar for dollar, there is no better education than that which the travel dollar buys.

For this reason, we, the staff of the 1961 Clock, ask you to come on a trip with us to faraway places. Just like the travel books we must give you, the reader, a list of things to do before we leave, so our instructions follow.

Passport

The first, and most important thing you will need is a passport, which is the official document that permits you to leave the United States. Application for this passport was made by each Perry High Student when he left his

If you are a male citizen between 18 and 26 years of age, you must obtain draft board clearance. Some of Perry's students come under this regulation—so you fellows are on your own!

The insurance you now have is sufficient because there is not going to be any risk in the trip that we will make. It's as certain as tomorrow!

Inoculations

A vaccination to insure you against smallpox is necessary to gain re-entry into the United States. Since most of us have been vaccinated recently, this certainly is no problem, and it probably shouldn't have been suggested.

Money

Once again, that word comes into the picture. But this time we'll fool everyone because we Bought by the citizens of Canton and Massillon through the Investment in Youth project, the Perry Stadium marks a landmark in the history of our school. Pictured above is the stadium in the process of being built.

Now that the destination is certain, we can get to the main topic of this sub-division—How to Get There. It would be easy to say that we are going “in our imagination,” but we are going to travel by studying. And if this is the case, our books will take us to the exotic, interesting, charming, exciting, and sometimes disappointing places.

Travel To Learn

How to Get There

This could be a problem—but with us, it's a breeze. But before we discuss the means, we first must discuss where we are going.

We're going EVERYWHERE! Yes, this is a big order but in four years time (if we're lucky), a man can move the proverbial mountain, so why can't a Perryite go EVERYWHERE?

Sports have always been a part of life since before the time of the ancient Greeks. People travel from all corners of the earth to see the Olympics whether they are held in Rome, Tokyo, or Helsinki. Pictured below is the Studio Olimpico at the Rome Olympic site.

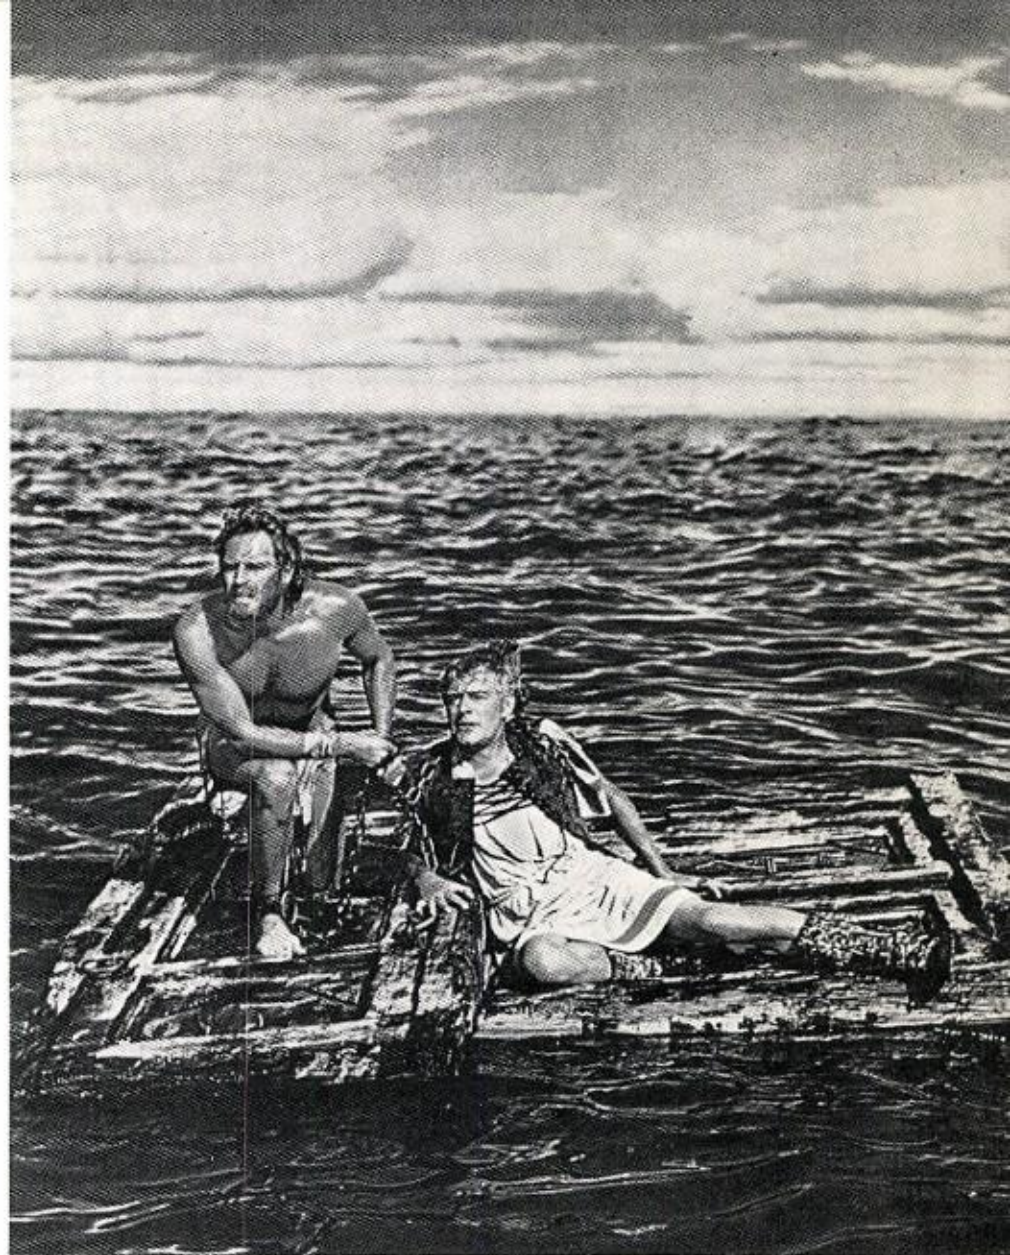

Travel To Learn

The airline advertisements scream "Fly now—Pay Later." We'd like to paraphrase this airline slogan and make it read "Study Now—It'll Pay Later." We believe our slogan is better than the airline's slogan, but we believe that the basic idea of travel is excellent. Therefore we invite you to come along with us on our journey and you too will Travel To Learn.

In the not too distant future many Perry High students will be in all parts of the world.

While Broadway and the Cinema permit people to travel, so do Perry High's theatrical productions. Here Donna Pflug takes us into the world of fantasy with her interpretation of "Mrs. McThing."

By seeing Ben Hur, Perry's students vicariously traveled into the past with Hollywood stars, Charlton Heston, and Jack Hawkins.

This is not a fantastic prediction because it is quickly becoming a reality.

Today many of Perry High's alumni are located in places that they never knew existed five years ago. Little did Ed Badnell, Class of '60, know that he would be at Colorado Springs as a member of the U. S. Air Force Academy. Five years ago that school didn't even exist.

Paul Pfeiffer—Co-Dedicatee

Just why is a book, any kind of a book, dedicated to a person? Is it because that person is well-liked by those who come under his jurisdiction? Is it because he has an effervescent personality? Or is it because he is a "good Joe"?

If any book is dedicated to a person solely on the above propositions, then the book should not have been produced in the first place because the dedication becomes a method of buttering up individuals who

A book is dedicated to a person because he shows interest, a real, down to earth genuine interest, in every phase of school life. No other man associated with Perry Local Schools has devoted more of his time, drive, and energy for the advancement of this school system than Mr. Pfeiffer.

During the Second World War Winston Churchill

have already buttered up the publication staff members.

We, the members of the 1961 Clock, have not been buttered up by either of the two gentlemen to whom this book is dedicated. We prefer it that way. But we must say in all sincerity that we have received objective cooperation, if there is any such thing, from both men to whom this book is dedicated—Paul Pfeiffer, executive head of Perry Schools, and Robert Flanders, principal of Perry High School.

PAUL PFEIFFER

was never seen without a cigar in his mouth. That cigar was seen everywhere. And Mr. Pfeiffer is as ubiquitous as Mr. Churchill's cigar. Just think back, how many functions have you been to that you haven't seen Mr. Pfeiffer? If Mr. Pfeiffer doesn't have interest, devotion, and love for his schools, then no one does.

Robert Flanders - Co-Dedicatee

Since Mr. Pfeiffer has been executive head, his administrative duties have increased with the growth of the community. As the population of Perry Township increases, there will be a steady need for more schools and classrooms. Aware of this problem, Mr. Pfeiffer has spearheaded a drive for a junior high school which will open in September. Two new schools have been built—Watson and Lohr. Even before Watson was completed the dynamic growth of the community necessitated an addition to that school. An addition had to be tacked on to Whipple Heights School.

Two years ago when the first Clock was published, the staff of that publication described Robert Flanders as a man of "many personalities who must be a friend to all his students and faculty." He is a liaison between parents and individuals who come in contact with the school. He must be a disciplinarian—one of the most difficult tasks of the educator. He is a man of wisdom, full of sage counsel to those who need it.

Times have not changed. Mr. Flanders is still that same man. The fact that he has not changed is proof that Mr. Flanders is a man of conviction. What is

Besides the growing pains of the community, Mr. Pfeiffer has under his wings many teachers. His associations with teachers cast him in the role of everything from a minister to a trouble shooter . . . Yes, and sometimes he even is cast in the role of an administrator.

Diligent, hardworking, humble, discerning, fair, just, and honest—the adjectives can flow ad infinitum to describe the Executive Head of Perry Local Schools. That's why we, the staff of the 1961 Clock, proudly co-dedicate this book to Paul Pfeiffer, Man Among Men.

ROBERT FLANDERS

his conviction. It is that every student at Perry High should receive the best education available.

Perry High during its five years of operation has emerged as one of the best schools in Stark County. During these five years, Perry High has had only one principal, Mr. Flanders. Much of the success of Perry High must be credited to the leadership that Mr. Flanders has given the school in the academic line.

And so The Clock proudly co-dedicates this year's publication to Mr. Flanders, Man of Conviction.

What are the meanings of scared, excited, unsure? Just ask a freshman. He'll tell you. Everyone of them had the same feelings as they entered the doors of Perry High School this year. They were starting on a long trip—a trip to who knows where.

They were scared as they walked through the classroom door to meet their homeroom teacher. What will he be like? Will I like him? These were the questions that raced through their minds.

Soon they were given their locker assignments. Then when they found their lockers, for some dumb reason they wouldn't open.

After they had their lockers straightened out they went back to their homerooms with a feeling of great accomplishment. Then the bell rang for the first class. High school was as bad as they had imagined, because they couldn't find their first period class room.

As their trip got under way they started taking on new responsibilities. Class officers were elected. Then they chose a girl they believed to be the sweetest and most sincere to represent their class as freshman attendant to the football queen.

The Class of 1964 numbers 310 strong and their trips through Perry High will be filled of precious memories.

Vicki Liber is suddenly overcome by emotion when it is announced at the pep rally before the Glenwood game that she was elected the freshman football attendant.

Sophomores . . .

Have new freshmen! Will tease!

This was the slogan of Perry High's sophomore class as they started on the second phase of their journey. As the members of the class of '63 recalled their freshman year, and the amusing antics and somewhat harrowing experiences wrought by the upperclassmen, they vowed to put the incoming freshman class through the same trials and tribulations. Because of the sophomore pledge, this year's incoming freshmen received the traditional heart-warming welcome to our Alma Mater.

However, this mild form of hazing was not the only activity in which various members of the sophomore class participated in and excelled at. Academically and athletically many sophomores found themselves in Perry's piercing "spotlight." One outstanding '63 graduate, Beryl Berger, received high recognition in Ohio's Prince of Peace contest while Jim Pierce and Doug Steward received a position on the Panther varsity football and basketball teams, respectively.

Perry High School's sophomore class of hard-working and ambitious travelers have accomplished many great feats in this, the second step in their journey. Such an outstanding record can only help to secure an even greater future in the long trip ahead.

Juniors . . . '62

It's a bird! It's a plane! It's the junior class.

No, the members of Perry's Junior Class do not fly, but they might as well. Whenever there was a task to be completed, they tackled the job before one had time to blink.

The '62 graduating class chose capable class officers to lead them on the third leg of their journey. Coupled with help from many other members of the junior class, the officers sponsored a wonderful junior-senior prom at Canton's American Legion Hall as a tribute to the graduating class of '61. They were also honored to have John Preusser and Jerry Updegraff as part of the second string all-county team. Jurgen Dominick and Sherry Bradley inveigled their ways and became finalists in the Mr. and Miss Photogenic Contest which is sponsored yearly by "The Clock."

With the definite leadership ability demonstrated by the junior class during the 1960-1961 school year, the last and final leg of their journey which lies ahead of them, their senior year, will be one long remembered by Perry High.

And after graduation the class of '62, like the three classes that preceded them, will be among the many Perry High graduates who have scattered themselves throughout the four corners of this world.

A group of Perry students go through the lunch line to satisfy a hunger that was built-up during the four previous periods.

Perry's high strutting majorettes, Carol Kelch, Sherry Bradley, Glenna Norris, Donna Pflug, Barbara McNutt, and Caryl Johnson go through the band's opening routine as they march down the field.

Seniors '61

"All good things must come to an end." This saying known to all is especially meaningful to seniors.

In future years we shall pause and think about our wonderful high school days. We'll think of all the fun we had before we went our separate ways.

As freshmen we attended our first high school football games to see our own Gary Nist display the playing ability of a great athlete. We also saw the Perry High Band put on its first band show. These were only a few of the many firsts that year.

As sophomores we grew in fellowship and union. We sponsored the "Sweetheart Swing" and made the first money for our class treasury.

Soon we were juniors. This year we held the junior class play, received our class rings, some became eligible for National Honor Society, and most exciting of all we sponsored the junior-senior prom. This year Gary Witschy represented Perry High at Boys' State.

Our last year will never be forgotten. This was the beginning of the last leg of our journey. Our football team completed the season with the best record in the history of Perry High. Jim McKinney and Gary Nist received a place on the all-county, first-string team. As for the basketball team, they didn't always win but they were always in the fight. Joe Wright and Jim Franklin, The "Einsteins" of Perry High, became finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Contest. Thus, our high school journey came to an end.

Now we're in a bigger game, one of toil and strife. Our high school days prepared us for this; it is the game of life. However, no matter what may happen in the future one thing will never die. That is the memory of the joys we shared in our own Perry High!

May the Class of '61 never be content with their achievements, but always strive for higher goals.

Among the many wonders to see in this wide world of ours is the British Empire's Parliament with its towering Big Ben. Parliament which houses the House of Lords and House of Commons is one of the best examples of Gothic architecture in the world.

The history of the British Empire and the goings-on in Parliament are studied by Perry High's World History classes and its English IV classes.

Seated before the famous Parliament is Perry High's principal Robert E. Flanders.

How many times have you found yourself sitting at your desk dreaming of the chance to get to the top? If you are a normal person, thoughts such as this have probably come to you more than once. If this is your desire, more than likely you "missed the boat" in acquiring an education. If you slaved diligently to do your daily assignments and graduated from high school and toiled hours at a part-time job and earned your way through college, you did hop on the wrong ship.

If you would only have dropped out of high school and saved yourself those hours of seemingly worthless homework, you could have started right in at the top. A high school education isn't necessary to acquire the only job where you start at the top and work down—that of a ditch digger.

If you do not desire to wear your fingers to the bone handling a shovel, you had better shed the skin pushing a pencil and get that high school diploma.

Why graduate from high school? Why strain yourself to get through those four intangible years of high school? There are a couple of good reasons. One—it is impossible to land a high-paying job without a high school diploma and two—it is impossible to enter college without having been graduated from high school. And today, more than ever, most high-paying jobs require a college education.

Indirectly, therefore, a high school education is essential to anyone who wishes to get to the top of his profession. While it is necessary, of course, for a student to apply himself in the secondary school in an effort to get the best education possible, it is also necessary for him to be enrolled in a school that will offer him the proper background and tools with which to mold his future. Perry High School offers all these necessities.

The person who desires to be a man of the world must have a well-rounded form of high school education. Not only must he have the basics such as math, English, and language, but if he intends to get about in the business world of today where travel and public relations are so important, he must have supplementary courses such as speech and journalism.

The speech and dramatics section of the Perry curriculum is a very well-rounded program. Rather than having the customary junior and senior class plays with only members of those classes participating, Perry has two all-school plays sponsored by these classes. This provides for more interest in dramatics and brings out better talent. Also aiding in the production of these plays is the Perry Thespian Society which is an organization of interested and qualified students in the field of dramatics.

An ability to write is essential for the executive who wants to succeed. The on-the-go businessman is constantly writing letters or reports of some nature. At Perry there is an excellent opportunity for training in the writing field. Classes in journalistic writing offer a sound foundation. Then, for the more interested and talented students, there is the chance to become a member of the staff of the Panthers View, one of the top high school newspapers in the state.

The Clock, the Perry annual, just missed being classified as "All-American," the highest possible rating for a yearbook, so you can see that Perry's publication department is of the highest caliber.

More on the academic side of the ledger, we find a rapidly growing language department. To the world traveler, foreign languages are a necessity. Currently on the Perry curriculum we find Latin I and II, Spanish I, II, III, and French I and II. The administrators hope to add Latin III and possibly another language to this field of study.

The Perry science department offers a bright future to all serious minded students. In the science field there is a tremendous opportunity to go places and do things. In this rocket age, scientists are in great demand.

And then, of course, who could survive without math. The mathematics courses taught at Perry are taxing but well taught and very worthwhile. Through math it is possible to land some very lucrative positions in the business world.

While we have been impressing upon you throughout most of this article the importance of the high school education to the college graduate, we cannot overlook the tremendous advantages it has for a person who does not attend college.

The Perry industrial arts department is one of the finest in Stark County and trains youth in wood and metal work and also mechanical drawing. A person who has mastered these courses can land himself a responsible job with a construction company that goes places.

What about the girls? Their future is very bright thanks to a Perry education.

The Perry business department is recognized as one of the foremost in the County. A Perry graduate seeking a position generally has little trouble finding one.

Many lucky men are going to land themselves some mighty fine wives thanks to the efficient home-economics department. Here girls are taught anything from how to wash windows to how to cook a full course meal. Someday, possibly, a world famous chef may come from the Perry Home-economics department.

Although this article makes it sound as if high school is all cut and dry book work, it is far from it. At Perry the relationship of the students to one another is one of a most friendly nature. There are also enough clubs and organizations at Perry to satisfy the interests of nearly every student.

One of the most impressive things about Perry High, although it is an excellent school right now, is that it keeps striving to improve. With an attitude like that, it can't help but build a strong foundation under the leaders of tomorrow—Perry graduates!

And the future and innumerable successes and achievements start now!

Perry High students eat more food in two days than an average sized family eats in a year. It's no wonder since the cooks must prepare more than 700 lunches each day that school is in session. In the picture above, the cooks take a break from their busy schedule. They are Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Bethune, Mrs. Stipes, Mrs. Gash, Mrs. Collins (head dietician) and Mrs. Nist.

With Perry Township growing in the manner that it is, Perry's Board of Education continually keeps their eyes towards the future growth of the community. Because of its growth the citizens of the township approved a bond issue for a new junior high, Edison Junior High, which will open its doors in September, 1961. Breaking ground for the new school is Perry's forward looking school board which is composed of Robert Hoffman, vice president; Doctor Robert Allison, past president; Russel Needham; John Edwards, president; and Lee Holmes.

Without a doubt Perry High is the cleanest school in Stark County. Responsible for this achievement are the following custodians: Joshua Wahl, Clyde Lanham, Lou Clauss, Ed Tissot, Ray Collins.

Dr. Robert Allison, president of the school board in September 1960, accepts the football stadium which was built and purchased through the Investment in Youth program from Ron Archibald, chairman of the Program's board of directors. Others

Investment Program Aids Many Groups

Spearheaded by fireball Ron Archibald, 1960 saw the emergence of the Investment in Youth program which had as its aims the supplementation of facilities and conveniences of Perry Local School's avocational activities.

Assisted by a multitude of bombastically enthusiastic members of the community, the Investment in Youth program was successful in raising more than $25,000, the bulk of which went into the new 2,000 seat stadium which is located on the south side of the football field.

Besides the already mentioned football field, the fund raising program also provided a $100 check for each of the six grade schools in the community, two printing presses, equipment for 100 seventh and 8th grade students who participated in the elementary football program, new professional helmets for the varsity football team, $100 to the junior band, a refreshment stand for the band parents and more than $100 was given to the Perry High choir.

Among the many activities that a world traveler may participate in are eating rare foods, seeing historic sights, meeting interesting people, and participating in native festivals.

Every one of the above mentioned activities are educational in every respect, and each activity will continue to be a memorable experience for the rest of an individual's life.

Travel experiences are not material and, just like a good education, they can never be taken away from an individual.

Activities at Perry High run the gamut. There are clubs which will satisfy almost any student's avocational desire. Used wisely, a club can deliver an education which can be just as useful as travel.

Art Club

The Art Club is composed of students who wish to obtain more knowledge of art and further develop their artistic abilities. The meetings are spent watching movies on art, sketching, paintings or working on a special project.

Interest in art is increasing at Perry as this year's club was the largest in the history of the school.

Each year Perry's Art Club enters in the Halloween contest at Amherst Shopping Center and this year placed second in the contest.

Social functions for the club included parties for members and their dates.

OFFICERS: President—Judy Robish, Vice President—Chuck Arbuckle, Secretary—Rita Rambacher, Treasurer—Shari Roth, Reporter—Dave Kaufman.

ADVISOR—Miss Barbara Hadden.

Audio-Visual

Many objectives were set up at the beginning of the year for the Audio-Visual organization, and the accomplishments of the boys were just as numerous.

This department was responsible for a number of services to the school. They served the announcements at all pep rallies and games, provided stage crews for all programs, provided noon movie entertainment and disc jockeys at grade school record hops. Also, new film equipment was purchased and a listening system was set up for the language department.

An outstanding service was performed this year by these boys who were willing to give their time and effort for others.

Bookends

"Reading"—the key to higher learning. Upholding and stressing this are the Bookends, who served as assistants in the library.

Any freshman, sophomore, junior or senior, who maintained at least a 'C' average and who was interested in reading and fundamental duties of a library assistant was eligible to join the club.

Some of their important events included selling refreshments at football games and attending an annual Christmas party. They ended their busy year with an annual all day spring trip.

SITTING: Don Turner, Tim Miller, Ray Lazor, Jim McKinney.

Boys' Leaders

Ability in athletics and getting along well with others are the qualities necessary for the boys' leaders.

The boys acted as assistants to Mr. Wampfler in carrying on gym classes. Because of his coaching duties, it was sometimes necessary to appoint the boys to conduct the classes.

Teaching gymnastics and helping underclassmen learn how to maintain physical fitness was part of the duties performed by the leaders.

To be eligible, one must have participated in football.

No officers.

ADVISOR—Mr. Wampfler.

Chess Club

Setting up new traps and learning all the basic fundamentals of the game of chess were the objectives of this year's Chess Club.

Meetings consisted of basic instructions, and games between club members followed. Officers for the club were not chosen at the beginning of the season.

The games that were played was to determine who the officers would be. The player winning the highest number of games would be given the title of President. Vice President, secretary, etc., were chosen in the same manner.

Eligibility for the club was not restricted. With the assistance of their advisor, Mr. Edel, all members learned many new plays.

ADVISOR: Mr. John Edel.

Future Business Leaders

Going forth in the business field will be these girls in the commercial course. The club served as their guide and introduction into the business world.

To be eligible for the club, typing II and shorthand were required. No regular meetings were held, and all club business was taken care of during school time.

With the return of the alumnae at the annual banquet, the girls learned first-hand information about on the job activity. As another preparation for their future, the club visited the Hoover Company in the spring.

OFFICERS: President—Barb Evans, Vice President—Jane Cunningham, Secretary-Treasurer—Linda Mason.

ADVISORS: Mrs. Cain, Mrs. Allerton, Mr. Watkins.

SITTING: Jane Cunningham, Bonnie Byers, Linda Fleshour, Pat Newell, Susan Indorf, Beverly Price, Judy Baylor, Lois Tilton, Karen Hurless, Judy Handschumaker, Barb Evans. Future Homemakers of America

The members of the Future Homemakers of America plan ahead and look into the future.

The promoting of an appreciation of the joys of homemaking and the developing of leadership in the home and community are the principal aims of this organization. Anyone having at least one year of home economics was eligible.

As a preparation for their future, the girls learned more of the arts of homemaking. Cooking, sewing and tips on hostessing were offered.

Along with this was the development of character and leadership to prepare the girls for their place in the community.

OFFICERS: President—Ruth Warren, Vice President—Nancy Whitacre, Secretary—Jane Lapps, Treasurer—Sue Halter, Historian—Ronna Harbison.

ADVISORS—Mrs. McNutt, Miss Grottendick.

Future Nurses Club

"Action"—a key word to the Future Nurses Club.

Thanksgiving time found the club making favors for the children's ward at Massillon City Hospital. At Christmas, carols were sung at the county home, and personal gifts were given out.

Serving as the reward for the club member's efforts was the pinning ceremony held in the spring. Those acquiring the specified number of points received their pins and guards.

Perhaps the most important activity, however, is the scholarship which is awarded to the best qualified senior to aid her in nursing school expenses.

OFFICERS: President—Cheryl Blackburn, Vice President—Mary Ann Boyd, Secretary—Pat Strobel, Treasurer—Linda Gusky, Historian—Norma Weckbacher.

ADVISOR—Mr. Burris.

Future Teachers of America

Future Teachers of America is an organization designed to better acquaint the student with the field of teaching and to give him a view of the goals and advantages of teaching. It also gives the student an understanding of this occupation's true characteristics.

Members of the F.T.A. offer aid to teachers, take over classes and study halls, visit the grade schools, take a trip to a nearby college, and sponsor a picnic and Christmas party.

Those eligible for membership are all freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have an interest in the field of teaching.

OFFICERS: President—Check Lallathin, Vice President—Nancy White, Secretary—Carole Vesley, Treasurer—Carolyn Bucher, Librarian—Melinda Barnes, Parliamentarian—Nancy Hall.

ADVISOR—Mr. Bowen.

Girls' Leaders

Maintaining physical fitness and learning the principles of gymnastics served as the aims for this year's Girls' Leaders Club.

Among other things, these girls officiated at organized sports contests and aided the physical education instructor, Mrs. Porch, in teaching her classes.

The club was composed of sophomore, junior, and senior girls who had an acute interest in advanced physical education. Highlighting the events of the year were the annual black and white game and the gym show, both of which they co-sponsored.

No officers.

ADVISOR—Mrs. Porch.

SITTING: Leann Karrenbauer, Pat Swiger, Judy Collins, Tammy Muster, Nancy Mottice. ROW 2: Mrs. Porch, Diane Isbell, Peg Zimmer, Marybeth Mook, Connie Gussett. ROW 3: Sandy Kohl, Vicki Dick, Kathy Ledger, Donna Fryer, Connie Noble, Marcella Hupp.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association increased interest and participation in all sports activities. The club's purpose is to advance physical efficiency, health, joy, good character and wise use of leisure time. Good sportsmanship is an essential for this organization.

Important events which the G.A.A. sponsors are the Christmas formal, "Snow Palace," and the co-sponsoring of the annual black and white game. The club also purchased a trampoline for the girls' gym classes.

SITTING: Bonnie Ellert, Sue Halco, Leslie Boehm, Maureen Fitzgerald, Linda Fleshour, Cynthia Henning, Ellen Ann Lewis, Linda Miller, Sue Beswick, Cheryl Allen, Paulette Borell, Delores Lanham. Girls' Athletic Association

The G.A.A. is operated on the point system. The freshmen are not permanent members until they have acquired 50 points. Points are made by regular attendance at meetings, serving on various committees and other services rendered for the organization.

The girls learned the fundamentals of many sporting activities as well as receiving advanced learning in gymnastics. The advancement of good sportsmanship was present in all activities carried out by the club.

OFFICERS: President—Connie Gussett, Vice President—Donna Fryer, Secretary—Sue Delap, Treasurer—Judy Collins, Historian—Marcella Hupp.

ADVISOR—Mrs. Porch.

Key Club

Leadership and service were given in the 1960-61 season by the members of the Perry High Key Club.

The Key Club is a service organization composed of male members of the student body who have the necessary potential and desire to be leaders. All new members must be voted in by present members.

Projects in which the club participated this year were the compiling of football programs, election of the football queen, sponsoring of the queen dance, and the organization of the Christmas Assembly. As a service to the community, the club made and distributed Christmas baskets.

The club fulfilled well its main purpose of 'service' to the school as well as the community.

OFFICERS: President—Joe Wright, Vice President—Don Splittorf, Secretary—John Gorby, Treasurer—Jim Sabin.

ADVISORS—Mr. Mulvaney, Mr. Bowen.

Math and Astronomy Club

Advanced education in the field of astronomy and mathematics was begun this year in the Math and Astronomy Club.

The club was composed of members who had taken algebra II and those who were interested in the field of astronomy.

Experiments and individual projects were the main activities of the organization. Although regular meetings were not held, members were assisted and advised by math teacher, Mr. Bowen.

No officers.

ADVISOR—Mr. Bowen.

SITTING: Paul Christenson, Rick Thomas, Gary Morris, Dave Moledor, Bob Wile, Jon Creter. STANDING: Mr. Bowen, Ned

Brown, Todd Bright, Doug Rumberger, Gary Witschy, Sonja Huffman.

National Honor Society

Induction into National Honor Society is considered a great honor by students at Perry High. This organization fosters and promotes at Perry the four qualities upon which the society was founded. These four qualities are: scholarship, character, service and leadership.

N.H.S. sponsors several important school events during the year. The pep rally to present candidates for the basketball queen, the basketball queen dance, Rhapsody in Blue, the induction service for new members in the spring and a tea after the ceremony for new members and their parents are several of these events.

New members are chosen every year from ten per cent of the junior class and five per cent of the senior class. To be eligible for N.H.S. a student must have a 90% or B average for all high school work, a good character, service to the school, and leadership.

OFFICERS: President—Chuck Lallathin, Vice President—Ron Kaylor, Secretary—Nancy Hall, Treasurer—Thaya Kuhn.

ADVISOR—Miss Campbell.

SITTING: Judy Robish, Thaya Kuhn, Carol Kracker, Barb McNutt, Nancy Hall, Pat Strobel, ROW 2: Miss Campbell, Bev Price, Rosalie Mosier, Pat Shively, Donna Pflug, Wanda

Bertle, Carol Rosa, Karen Wright, Madeline Aker, Carol Hansen, Pat Newell, Peg Kropf.

P.B.X.

P.B.X. girls assisted in the high school office by answering phone calls and delivering messages. Other duties assumed were the greeting of callers and assisting them in any way possible and the operation of the duplicating machine.

Each girl learns the operation of the office machines. These include the above mentioned duplicator from which all tests are run off, and the P.B.X.

To qualify for the operating of the P.B.X., a girl must be a member of the upper three classes.

These girls' assistance aided the regular secretaries by doing the many errands necessary to carry out office duties.

SITTING: Pat Strobel, Thaya Kuhn, Carol Kracker, Barb McNutt, Cheryl Blackburn. STANDING: Mrs. McNutt, Chuck

Lallathin, Joe Wright, Ron Kaylor, Gary Witschy, Carol Rosa, Mr. Mattachione.

Quill and Scroll

Because of their journalistic ability and participation on the newspaper and annual staffs, these students were rewarded by their induction into Quill and Scroll, an international honorary society for high school journalists.

The present members of the club initiated this year's newly chosen journalists. Eligibility is based on hours of service and quality of journalistic work. Any member must maintain a 'B' average or above.

The organization serves as an incentive to all publication participants to achieve higher goals in the field of publications.

OFFICERS: President—Gary Witschy.

ADVISORS—Mrs. McNutt, Mr. Mattachione.

Radio Broadcasting Club

To improve the voice and familiarize students with speech and microphone work was the aim of the Radio Broadcasting Club.

Members were chosen on their ability to speak and enunciate clearly. Two boys and two girls from the organization attended the state radio contest. A field trip was taken to WCMW for experience on actual radio microphones.

During Christmas week, the R.B.C. members were in charge of all devotions. The club rendered its services all year by giving devotions and important announcements each morning.

OFFICERS: President—Kent Harbison, Secretary—Beth Foltz, Program Director—John Graber, Charge of Devotions—Shirley Robinson.

ADVISOR—Mrs. Riegler.

SITTING: Sandy Kinney, Shari Roth, Judy Robish, Dianne McNutt, Paula Foster, Helen Burgess, Christie Pioch. ROW 2: Peggy Kuhn, Carol Hansen, Beth Foltz, Margaret Nesbitt, Barbara Rex, Donna Pflug, Cathy Olden, Kent Harbison. ROW 3: Sue Halter, Marlena Meyers, Sandy Kohl, Elaine McAdams,

Science Club

So important to today's progressing world is the field of science. No field is advancing to greater heights than that of scientific knowledge.

The Science Club was composed of those students who had an active interest in advanced science. The meetings consisted of experiments and individual projects, which aided the students in gaining knowledge for their courses of science in higher education. Films were also shown to give the students further developments in science.

The future depends upon the knowledge of science. These students are preparing for that future.

OFFICERS: President—Steve Sutton, Vice President—Ned Brown, Secretary-Treasurer—Bill Spiker, Reporter—Duane Kinsinger.

ADVISOR: Mr. John Beach.

SITTING: Jim Dillinger, Jack Merryman, Rodney Bricker, Chuck LeMasters, Jack Cogan, Bart Hubbard, Marcene Murrury, Jeff Estadt. ROW 2: Mr. Beach, Curtis Schlarb, Marshall Holmes, Gary Hohman, Tom Johnston, Kathy Hanley, Pat Lenn, Fred Schaffer. STANDING: John Kross, Bill Spiker, Doug Rumberger, Dale Piper, Steve Sutton, Ned Brown, Raymie Sauers, Bob Wile.

Student Council

Good citizenship and democratic leadership are only two of the many qualities that the student council members promote and maintain.

This active, well organized group provided for student participation in establishing school policies and promoted closer relationship between faculty and students. Major events included the sponsoring of school assemblies, the establishment of the hall guard system, the selling of senior pins, the giving of Christmas baskets to needy families in the community, and the sponsoring of a school sock hop.

With such a lively organization as a leader, the school year contained many interesting activities.

OFFICERS: President—Tom Reigle, Vice President—Jerry Lape, Secretary—Nancy Blank, Treasurer—Ken Hartwick.

ADVISOR—Mr. Perez.

SITTING: Judy Robish, Christie Pioch, Sandy Kinney, Cathy Olden, Phyllis Sees. STANDING: Mrs. Riegler, Carol Rosa, Kent Harbison, Joe Wright, Dan Hoffman, Linda Sonnhalter, Donna Pflug.

Thespians

Providing Perry with outstanding entertainment was one of the many accomplishments of the honor society for dramatists, the Thespians.

The comedy, "Mrs. McThing," a senior Thespian sponsored play, opened the season for the organization. At mid-season, the junior Thespians sponsored "Thunder on Sycamore Street." All casts were selected from the entire student body.

Like many of the clubs this year, the Thespians obtained many objectives. The Kent State Drama Festival was attended, the standards of Perry's speech and dramatic enterprises were improved and money earned was used to aid these departments.

Members of Thespians were chosen on the point system. Anyone earning enough points from taking part in plays, cast or crew, making public speeches, participating in speech contests was eligible to be selected for membership.

OFFICERS: President—Donna Pflug, Vice President—Dan Hoffman, Secretary—Christie Pioch, Treasurer—Phyllis Sees, Clerk—Cathy Olden.

ADVISOR—Mrs. Riegler.

Perry Band Steps High

Concerts, parades, half-time shows, graduation exercises, pep rallies—all of these activities and more make up the Perry High Band's schedule for every school year.

Each year the Perry High Band improves and this past year was no exception. Acclaimed not only by the Band Parents' Organization, but by all the people who have seen the band perform, the Perry Band has dazzled its viewers with its snappy repertoire, snappy marching, and eye-filling routines.

Classics, popular, or rock and roll, the Perry Band plays it all and the performances are usually of a professional calibre. Of course this is natural, since the Perry Band has among its members many talented and learned musicians.

This year's band will probably be the largest band that Perry will have in many years to come. Next year there will be no freshmen in the band since they will still be members of the junior band which will be housed at the new Edison Junior high.

But band members state that this will not have any effect on the quality of music. If anything, bandsmen say that the music will be better since there will be a larger proportion of more experienced musicians.

During the past year Janet McClintock was the recipient of an award which was given by the band parents for selling the most ads in their calendar which they have published each year.

president. Next to him is Jack Branan, vice president; and Pat Shively, secretary-treasurer.

Choir Has Another "Full" Year

Holidays at Perry High were accented by the music supplied by the Vocal Department. Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter assembly programs were given by the choirs, spiriting these holiday seasons.

The activities of the 1960-61 choir were numerous. The students participated in area contests, select and massed choirs, and individual members sang at various banquets and meetings.

The Vocal Department consisted of an A Cappella Choir, Girls' Glee Club, Boys' Glee Club, Girls' Ensemble, Boys' Ensemble, and a Freshman Choir. Solos were required to be sung by all members of the A Cappella Choir.

Highlighting the year for the choir were initiation, parties, and the concluding highlight, the annual Choral Ball.

OFFICERS: President—Edith Blount, Vice President—Tighe Hurless, Secretary—Karen Hurless, Treasurer—Bob Allison, Historian—Christie Pioch.

DIRECTOR: Miss Sandra Schlub.

Edith Blount, recipient of this year's Arion Award.

Probably the most widely known, and the most widely heard group from Perry High is the Girls' Varsity Ensemble which has sung before numerous organizations throughout Stark County.

They are Barbara Risher, Bev Price, Beth Foltz, Karen Hershey, Betty Watkins, Edie Blount, Karen Hurless, Nancy Blank, and Joanne Starkey.

Soccer, rugby, and skiing—these are a few of the major sports in many of the foreign countries throughout the world. Europe in 1960 was the focal spot for sports because the traditional summer Olympics were held in the city of eternal love, Rome.

Although the United States did not make as good a showing as was anticipated, the Russians didn't make that good of a showing either. The surprise of the Olympics was the showing that the girls' track team made. Tennessee's Wilma Rudolph became the American sensation in all of the events in which she participated.

The Olympics epitomize the fact that the Brotherhood of Man can be a reality as it was a reality in Rome 1960. The key to brotherhood may well be sports.

Seated in front of Rome's giant Stadio Olimpico is Perry High's Bob Phillips.

Gridders Post 5-3-1 Record

JERRY WAMPFLER, Head Coach

TOM WINKHART, Backfield Coach

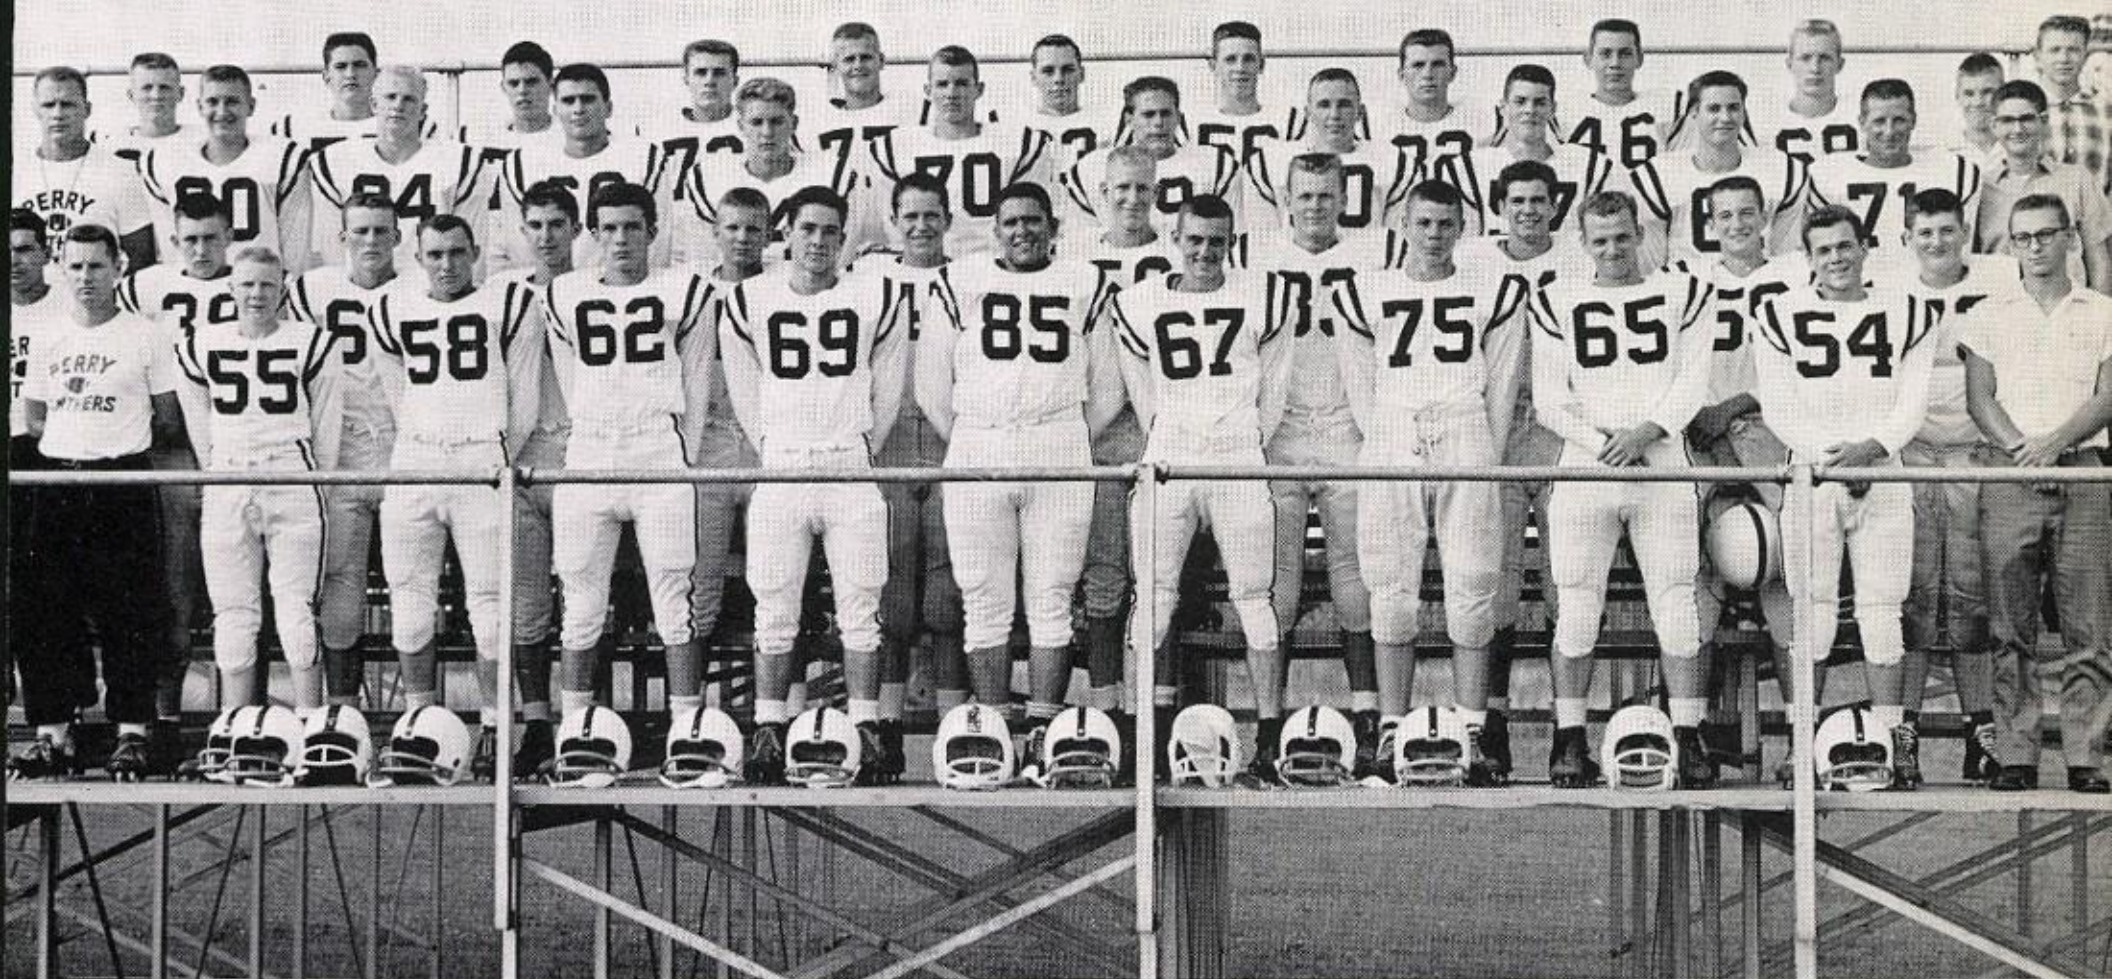

BERNARD McDONALD, Center and Guard Coach

Determination, fight, stamina, and good sportsmanship carried the Panthers to a new school winning season record this year, of 5-3-1. This winning season could not have been possible without the excellent disciplining of our varsity coaching staff; Jerry Wampfler, head coach; Tom Winkhart, backfield coach; and Bernard McDonald, center and guard coach. Their drive united the Perry squad into a pack of hard working defensive and offensive players whose desire to win prevailed throughout the season. This desire was remarkably displayed when the Panthers out-rivaled the favored Glenwood Eagles (20-7) and retained the glory of being undefeated by the Glenwood Eleven.

The Panthers came close this year to co-occupying the Class AA League throne but were defeated in a heartbreaking game with the Jackson Polar Bears (16-6) which dropped the Perry gridders into second place. But this defeat did not break the morale of the team for in the remaining two games they came through with thrilling victories.

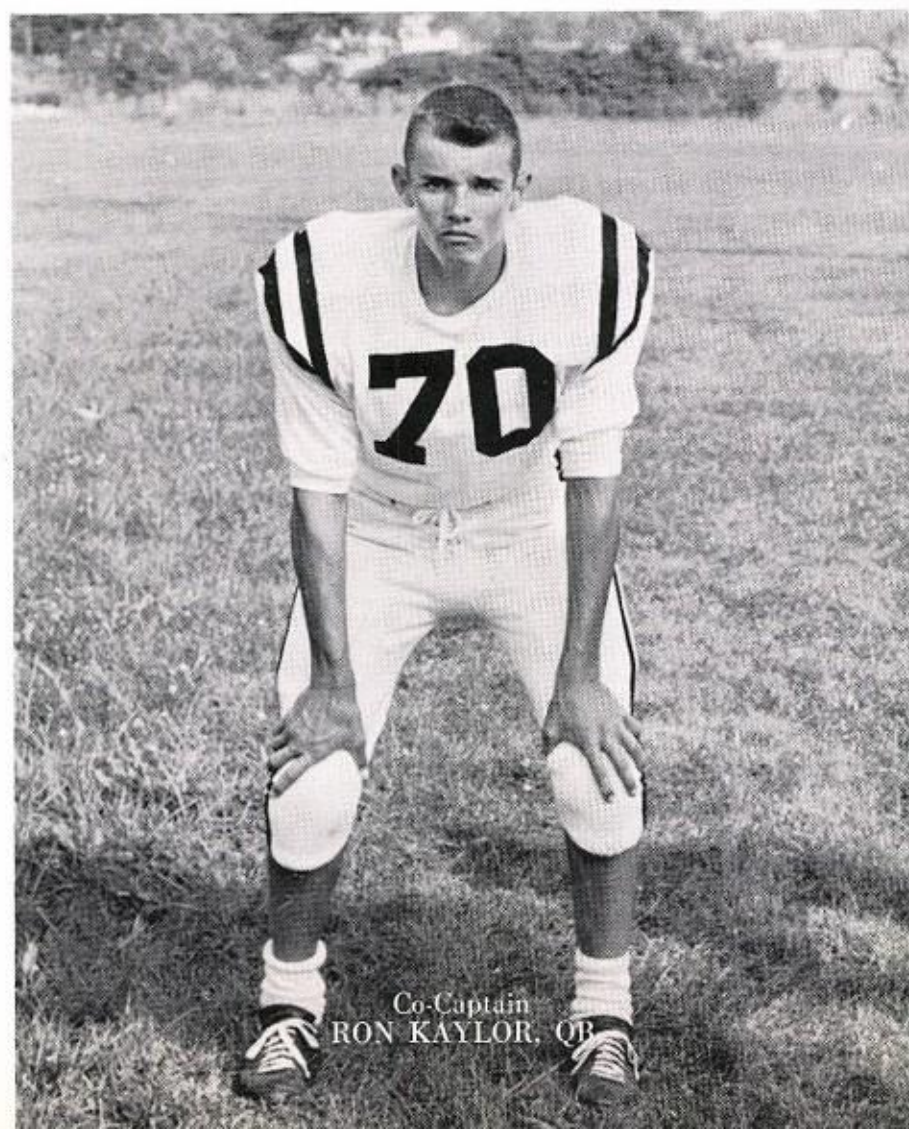

At the close of the season when representatives for the All County AA League were being chosen, Perry received six well-deserved positions. Jim McKinney, senior guard, and Gary Nist, senior halfback, copped well-deserved positions on the first team. On the second team, positions went to Dick Nelson, junior fullback; John Preusser, junior center; and Jerry Updegraff, junior tackle. Honorable mention was awarded to Tom Reigle, senior halfback.

Another sparkling highlight of the season was the presenting of the M.V.P. award. Dick Nelson copped this trophy while Jerry Evans, John Preusser, and Jim McKinney respectively won the best defensive back, best offensive lineman, and best defensive lineman honors.

Frosh Finish Fast

The '60 edition of the Panther freshman grid-ers started out slow but finished strong to post a 5-2 season record. Due to lack of experience the freshmen were defeated in their first and second games by the McKinley Bulldogs and the Central Catholic Crusaders 48-0 and 14-0 respectively.

In their third game the Panthers started a five game winning streak by defeating Sandyvalley 36-30. Last minute determination brought the gridders to a victory over Fairless 12-6 as Jerry Ridgeway, defensive middle guard came charging through the line and stole the ball from the Fairless quarterback and ran fifty-six yards for the winning touchdown. In the closing game of the season the drenched freshmen slouched over a muddy field to a victory over the Minerva Lions 8-0.

The boys could not have accomplished this excellent record without the outstanding coaching of Nick DiFrancesco, line coach, and John Ohman, backfield coach. Their inspirational lectures gave the boys determination to end the season victorious.

Panther Quintet Posts Sub-Par Record

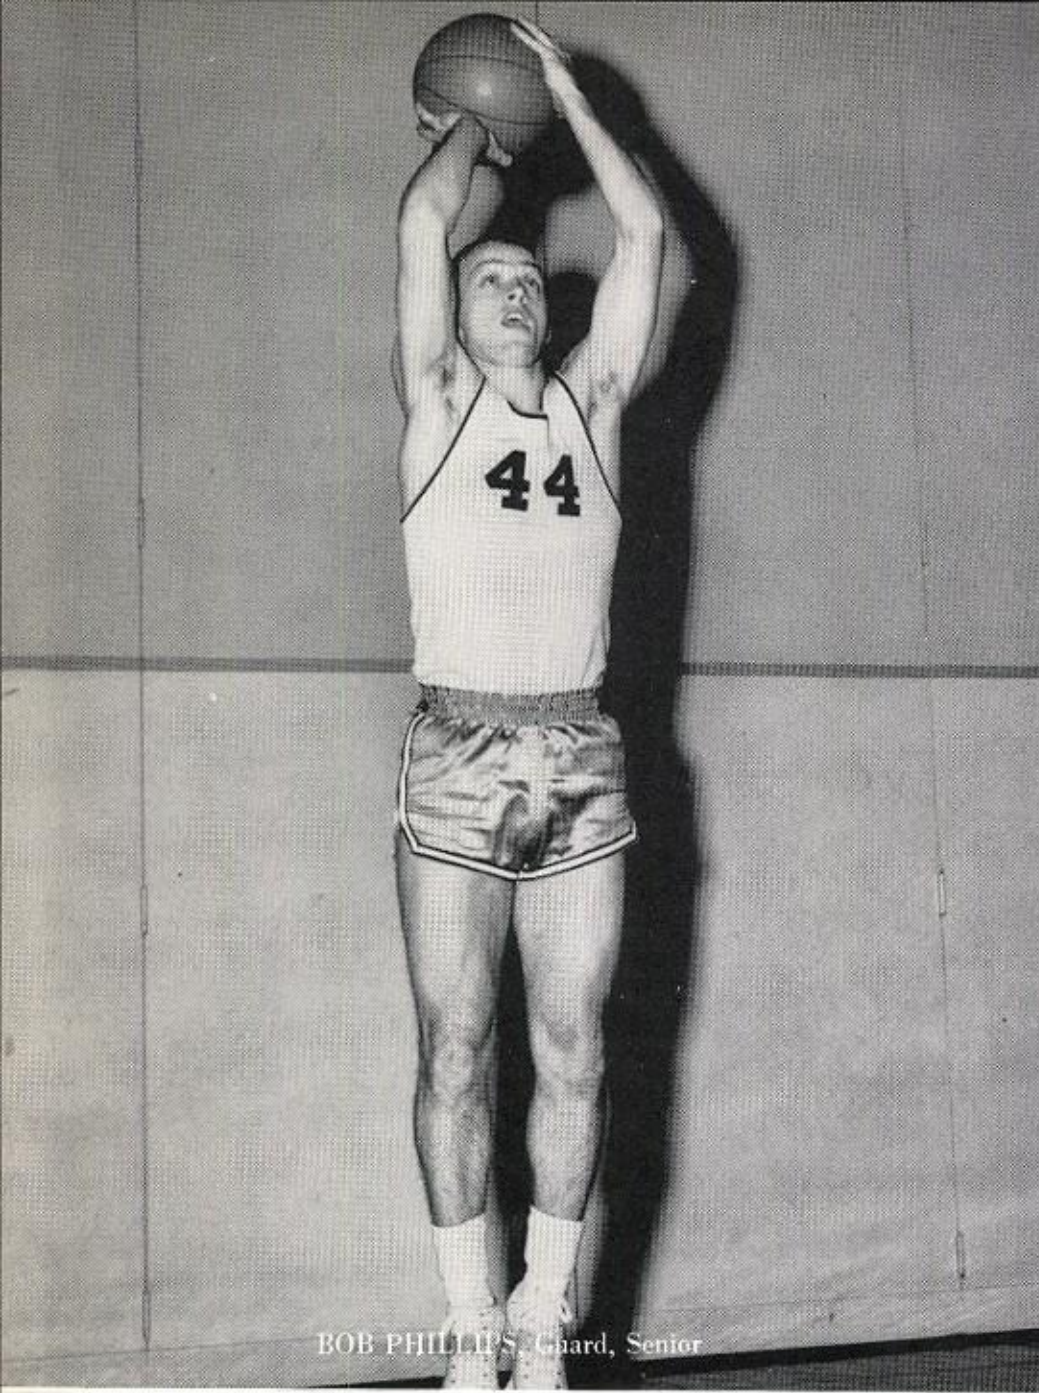

An erratic ball club that could sparkle at times, the Panther varsity quintet was plagued with injuries, and inconsistency. Because of these factors the Panthers posted a poor season record of 4-15. But this does not tell the sorrowful story of this unsuccessful season. Ron Kaylor, a 6 foot 2 inch three year letter man, who coach Don Cable was anticipating for this year's starting lineup, was stricken with a rare blood disease and was unable to participate. In the 4th game of the season with Central Catholic the "spark" of the team Bob Phillips received a broken ankle which disabled him for the remainder of the season.

With the odds against them the Varsity Cagers rallied to down the Glenwood Eagles 30-27 and the Jackson Polar Bears 75-42 after being previously defeated by the two teams 36-43 and 54-46, respectively. In the Tusky Valley game the Perry five played whole-heartedly as a team, which they should have done more often during the season.

Coach Cable feels that the underlying cause for this depressing record was inconsistency of scoring ability and poor ball-handling although he said, at times they played excellent ball.

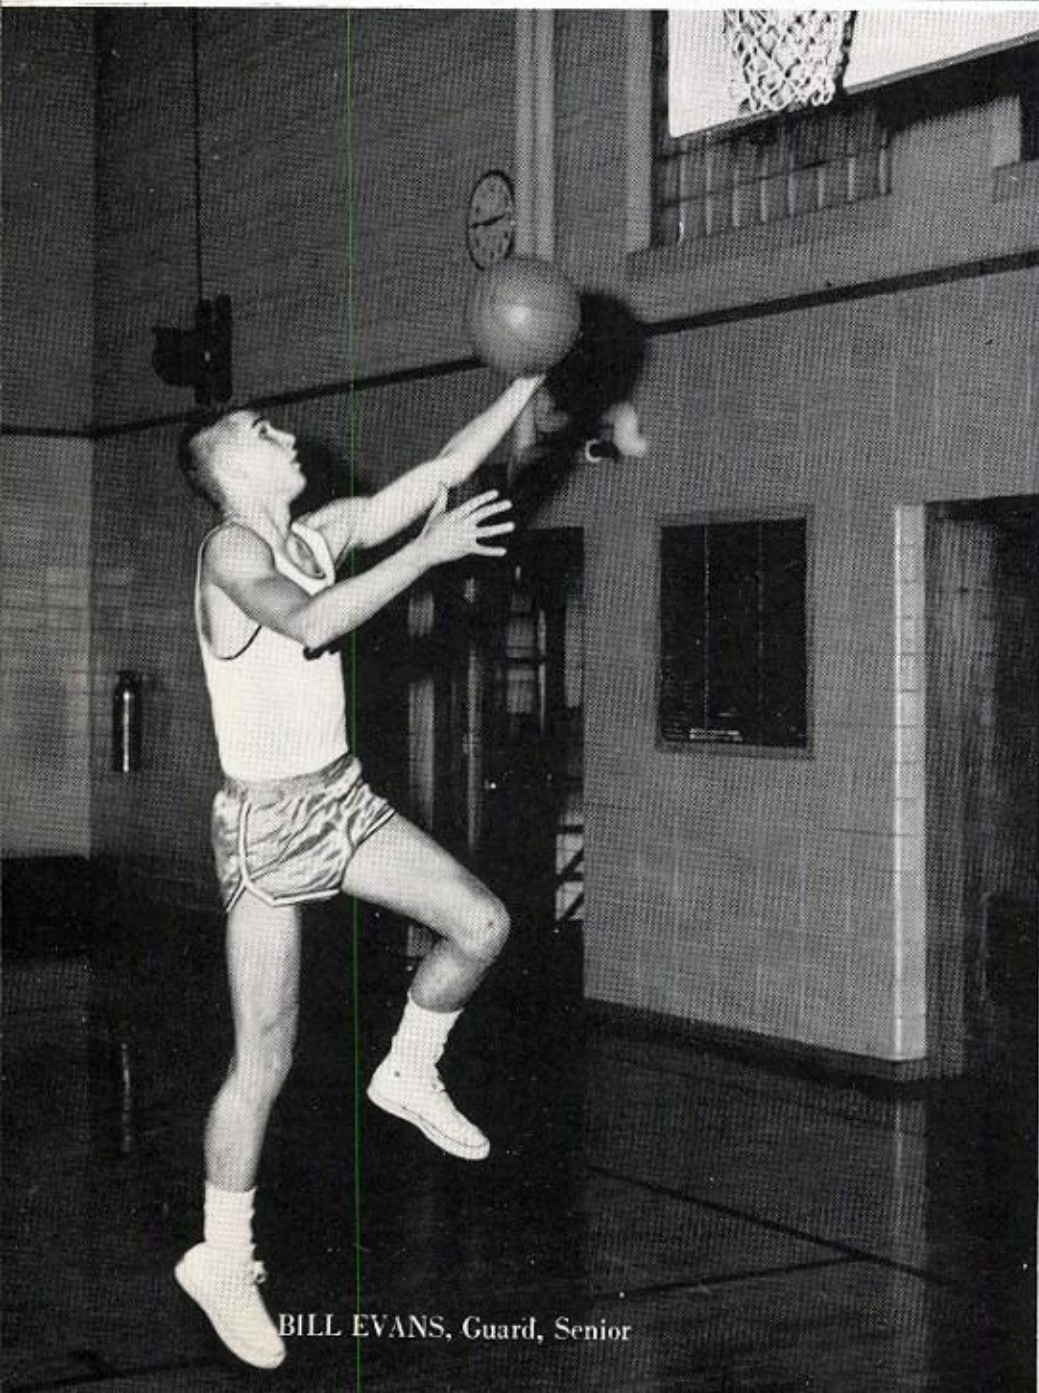

At the end of the season when the AA All-County Teams were chosen, Tighe Hurless received the center position on the second team and center Doug Stewart received honorable mention.

Reserves Show Future Strength

Battling their way through a frustrating season, the reserve cagers posted a 7-9 record. With the great 'know-how' of Coach Bernard McDonald and the effort put forth by the team, the reserves have developed into a great prospective varsity squad.

Confident Coach McDonald stated, "This ball club knows what it takes to make a winning team and it won't stop until it has perfected itself to this degree. So look out for us when we become the varsity, because we'll work until we reach the top."

The coaches of four of the opposing teams told McDonald that their ball clubs had to put forth more than an extraordinary effort and desire to beat Perry—more than their ball clubs showed against any other team that they played on this year's schedule.

By defeating the Sandy Valley Cardinals 45-30 and knocking off the undefeated Marlinton Dukes 36-22 in the two best games of the season, the Panthers showed their ample team desire and determination which had prevailed throughout the season.

Frosh Win Runner-Up Trophy

Romping over two foes in the Strasburgh Invitational Tournament before losing 51-33 at the hands of the Sandy Valley Cardinals, a fiery frosh quintet bagged the runner-up trophy and finished the '60-'61 campaign with a 7-9 mark. Five of the cagers' victories were taken on the Panther court through the superior coaching of Tom Winkhart and their overwhelming desire to win.

When the final statistics were tallied they revealed that Dale Daniels led the team in the scoring department with a 170 point total, and with 21 assists. Jerry Ridgeway's rebounding took the high honors with 148.

The Panthers averaged 31.4 points a game which was slightly under their opponents 34.9. These averages lead to a 654 and 663 point total for the Perry Frosh and their opponents respectively.

Cindermen Win Two Meets

After four years of heartbreaking defeat the Perry Cindermen finally met the challenges of opposing teams with victories. Out of the eight meets in which the Panthers enthusiastically participated during the spring of the year, they won only two. However, these will go down in Perry's history as the first meets ever to be won since the tracksmen entered their first meet in April of 1957.

These victories over Brewster and Sandy Valley will always be remembered and the Panther cindermen who helped to win them will always look back with pride.

One of the most outstanding members of the team was Ron Kaylor who broke the standing school record of 9 feet in the pole vault by going over the 10 ft. mark. He also placed in the Stark County AA league preliminaries.

None of the victories or even hard fought defeats could have been accomplished without the fine coaching efforts of Mr. Harry Hall, the long practices, and the squad's will to win.

Teams in the past have lacked the proper facilities for a winning season. However with better facilities and a determined effort the cindermen can look forward to a long string of victories.

Right: Ron Kaylor shows one of his many skills as he pole vaults at a track meet to help beat Sandy Valley.

Although Coach Don Cable's baseballers finished the season with a 7-10 record, they managed a second place in the Class AA league standings. A win over Jackson in the final league game of the season would have brought home the trophy for the Panther nine. With three returning lettermen and a baseball field of their own for the first time, the Panthers turned in a 278 team batting average and an 850 team fielding average.

Ken Hartwick and Tom Reigle led the team in batting with .400 averages each. Ken and Dan Graber headed the runs-batted-in department with twelve each. Dick Fink rounded out the season with a good pitching record.

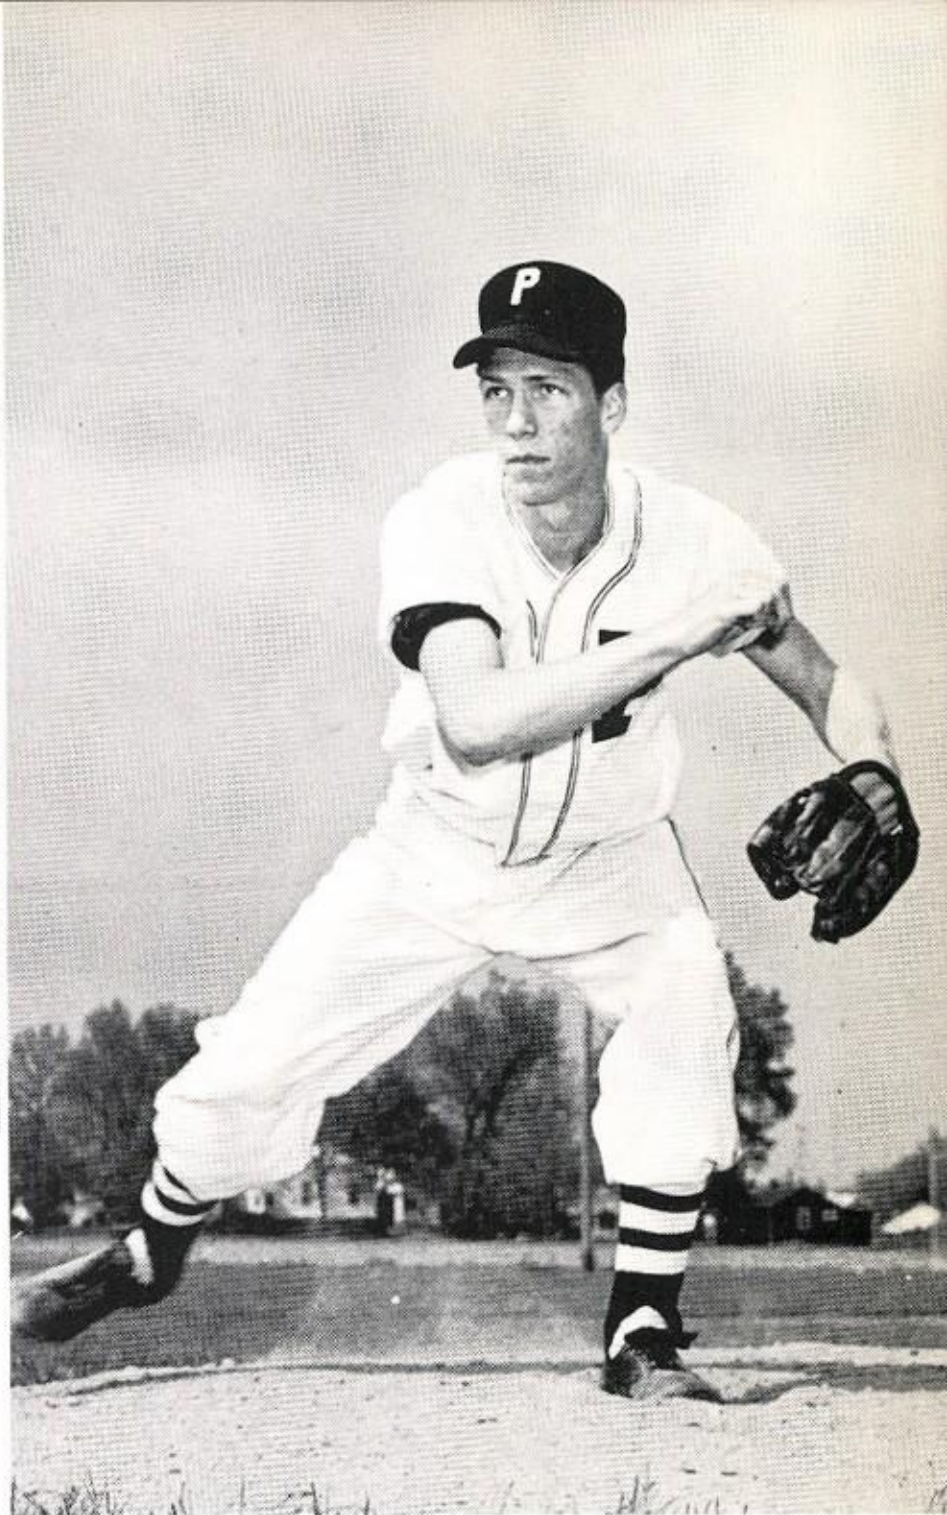

In '61 the Panther nine with six returning lettermen will be after Jackson and first place in the Class AA league.

LEFT: Tom Reigle swats out another long one to help him win batting laurels with his classmate Ken Hartwick. Both batted .400 for the season.

Right: Two-year-letterman Senior Dick Fink hurls another fast ball right across the plate and fans another would-be batter.

Below: Team members emotionally express themselves as a teammate connects on a long one. Sitting on the bench are Tom Reigle, Ken Hartwick, Dick Nelson, Jerry Lape, Ray Lazor, Bobby Jedel, and Tight Hurless. The Panther baseballers finished the season with a 7-10 record. They lost a heartbreaker to the Jackson Polar Bears in the Finals of the Stark County Class AA tournament.

Travel is "loaded" with highlights. A trip to Europe will often include a memorable evening at a French restaurant; an emotional experience at the world-famed Passion Play at Oberammergau, Germany; the music festival at Salzburg, Austria; the festival of St. Fermin at Pamplona, Spain; the opera season at the world-famed Milan's La Scala; the Shakespeare Festival at Stratford on Avon, England; and the list could go on ad infinitum.

And just as travel is "loaded" with highlights, so is a school year. Who will forget those precious stolen moments talking in the library, that wonderful date at the Junior-Senior Prom, the Pigskin Prom, the day that you got that horrible report card, and naturally, the day that you received your copy of The Clock and found out who was Mr. Photogenic, and Miss Photogenic? These are highlights which we will treasure.

Photogenic Talents

Pictured on this page are two of the talents who are managed by Nat Goodman, Incorporated, the talent agency which judged the Mr. and Miss Photogenic contest this year. Above is Miss Sue Raney who records for Capitol records. To the left is the singing group known as the Diamonds.

Talent Agency Selects Photogenics

It was stated in the Panther's View that Philippe Halsman, noted photographer for many slick magazines, would judge the current Mr. and Miss Photogenic contest. At the last moment, the judge was changed and Hollywood's noted talent agency, Nat Goodman, Incorporated, became the agent for the judging. Yearbook advisor Pat Mattachione feels that Perry students are so good looking that they should be in the movies—so why not see what the agencies have to offer?

This year's winner of the Mr. Photogenic contest is Ken Hartwick, Class of '61. The old saying that the third time is a charm is certainly true in Ken's case for this is the third successive year that he has appeared in the contest—this is the first time that he emerges victorious. Notice how the photographer caught Ken's devilishness which is so apparent in his eyes.

This year's winner of the Miss Photogenic contest is Sherry Bradley, Class of '62. For Sherry this is the first time that she has appeared in this contest, although she has been previously seen in the football queen court. Once again, the photographer seems to catch the personality of his subject. She seems to epitomize the clean-cut, All-American girl that we so often see on the television or Hollywood scene.

To the winners and the rest of the finalists, Gary Witschy, Jurgen Dominik, Doug Rumberger, Cheryl Blackburn, Peggy Zimmer, and Carol Rosa, The Clock staff offers its congratulations.

A College Trip

Approximately 40 per cent of the class of 1961 plans to attend college. Consequently, many Perry students traveled throughout Ohio to visit campuses at which they would like to further their educations.

One such trip was taken by Ken Hartwick and Dave Hoffman to Bowling Green State University. Dave plans to go into public relations work and Ken plans to go into coaching. Both thought that Bowling Green would be the ideal place to go, so in order to help make a decision a trip to visit the university was arranged.

Besides looking at the facilities which were available, they naturally had to see what facilities were available for extracurricular activities. Like all colleges in Ohio and like all high school students, Ken and Dave found that there would be plenty of activities to "kill that spare time"—if there should happen to be any.

By talking to students, and members of the faculty, they came away from Bowling Green with a feeling of anxiety and a yearning for September when they can embark on a whole new exciting life—that of a college student.

Dave and Ken sit on the steps of the Music Building and become amused at an article in the Bee Gee news.

Bee Gee senior Louie Mattachione, Dave, Ken, and Bee Gee senior Bob Taller leave the men's freshman dorm, Rodgers Quadrangle, after being taken through it by one of the counselors.

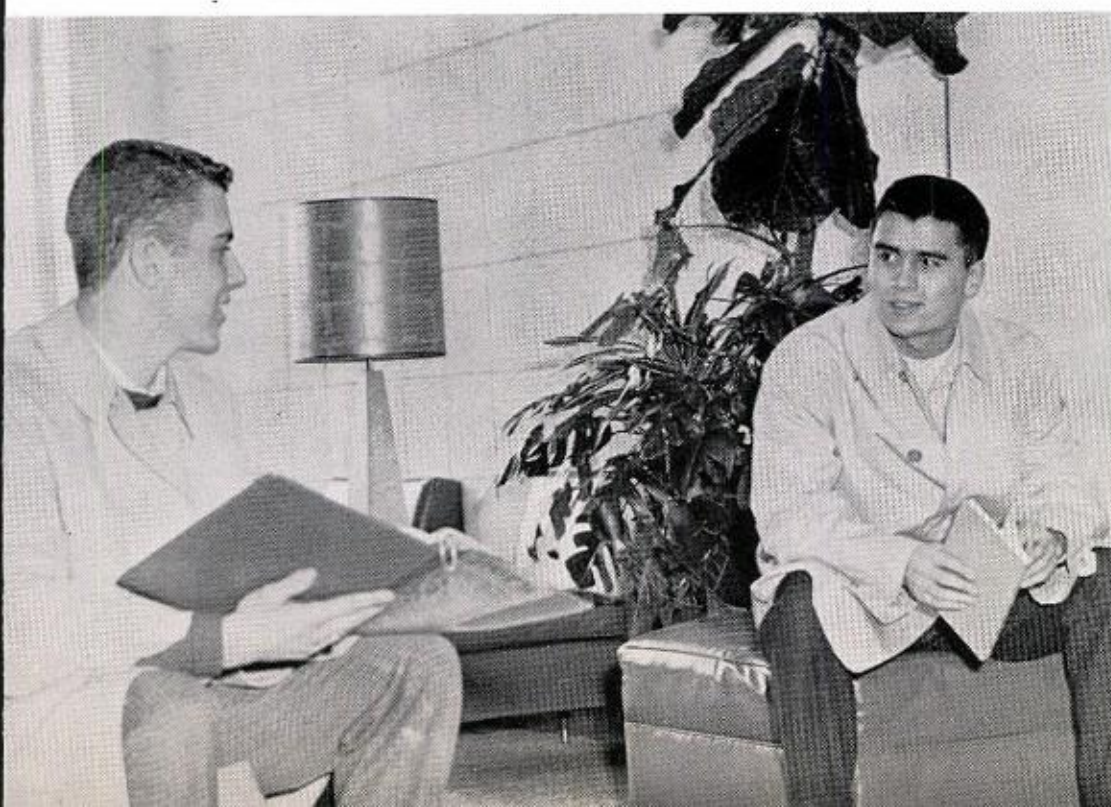

After looking over a dorm, Dave and Ken wanted to see a fraternity house to inspect accommodations, so Bob and Lou take them to the Kappa Sig house to show them "their" house. There they find that all frats are close together in what is known as Frat Row.

Dave who is interested in the public relations end of journalism discusses some questions which he has with the Bee Gee News editor, Ron Geiser. Ken and Dave listen intently and find that Geiser makes $750 a year for his job, even though he is a student.

A hop, skip, and jump away from the frat house, the group A group of Perry students go through the lunch line to satisfy was dedicated two days after the Perry students visited the Campus.

Left: Dave and Ken take a breather in the multi-million dollar student union which was built for the students' enjoyment in their spare time. It houses a bowling alley, hotel, grand ballroom, a "night club," three restaurants, a music listening room, and the students' hangout, the Falcon's Nest.

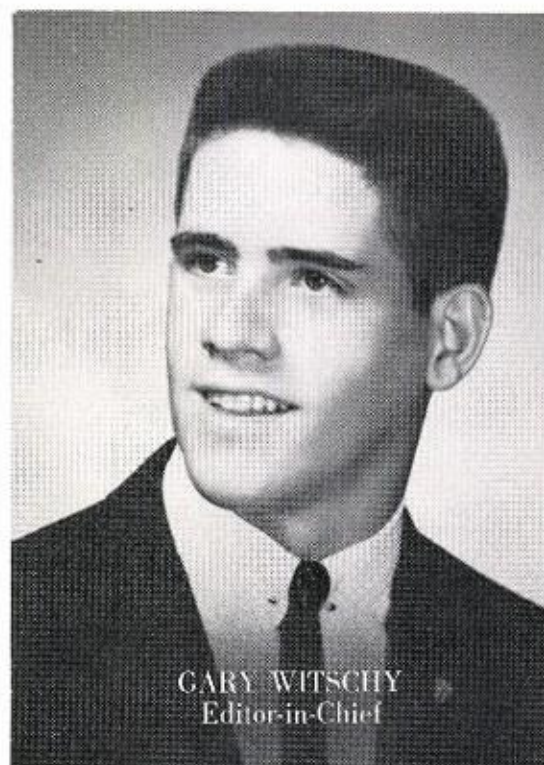

The Panther's View

Because of the punch of a special edition of The Panther's View just before the Jackson-Perry game, one of the most electrifying pep rallies was held at Perry High. The special edition, using reverse psychology, questioned the student body and the Panther eleven whether the football team was composed of "gutless wonders"?

Once again, the Panther's View proved that it was "A High School Newspaper with a Mind of Its Own."

Led by Editor-in-Chief Gary Witschy for the second successive year, the Panther's View once again won new laurels, this time not only at Kent State U., but awards were brought back from the University of Pittsburgh, Quill and Scroll, and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

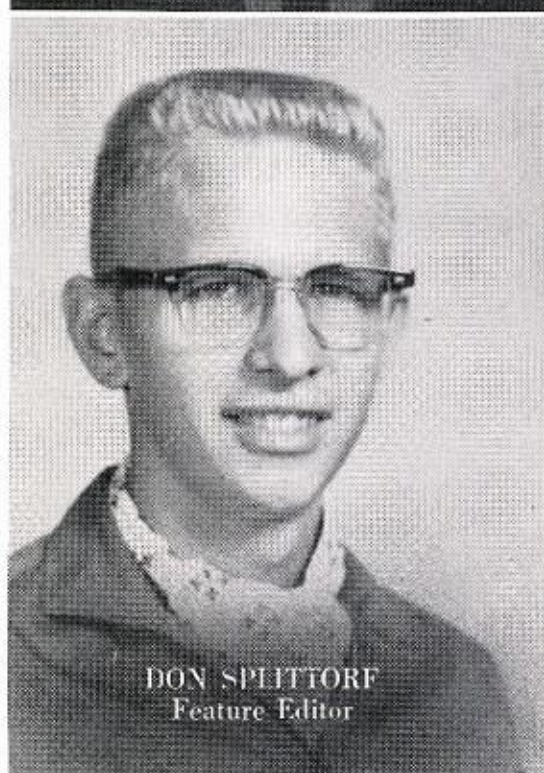

The awards won during the past year, the fifth such year that the Panther's View has competed in newspaper contests, and has been successful in contests of this nature—a record any high school would treasure.

The Clock

Without a doubt, the staff of this year's yearbook had a task before them that was gigantic—they wanted to make a bigger and better yearbook than was produced by last year's staff.

More color, more pages, more sections, and an index to catalogue every picture in the book were their desires which they accomplished in record breaking time.

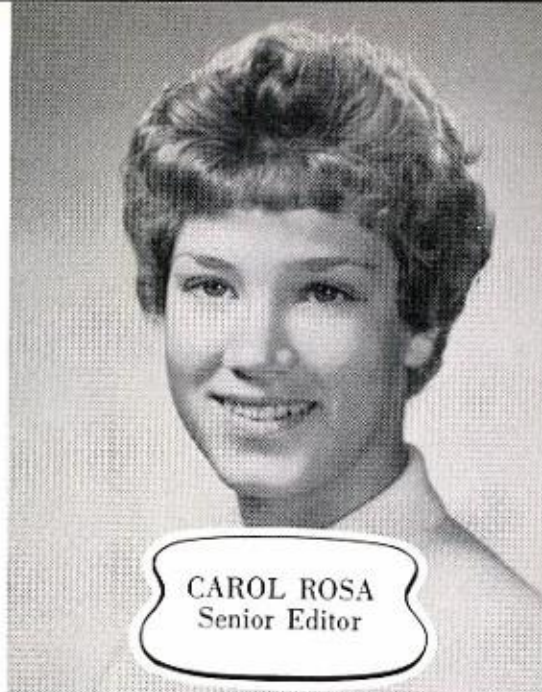

No deadline was missed, in fact all pages were sent to the printer long before they were due in order to assure prompt delivery before school was out.

Section editors did fantastic jobs without being prompted—a not too unusual job of a yearbook advisor.

Aiming for an All-American rating, the clock staff was meticulous about every one of their multitude of duties. And with the multitude of duties came the usual amount of headaches—by all concerned.

At times, because of pressures involved the twenty-four staff members and two advisors got into each other's hair—but that's to be expected when Mrs. McNutt and Mr. Mattachione are collaborating.

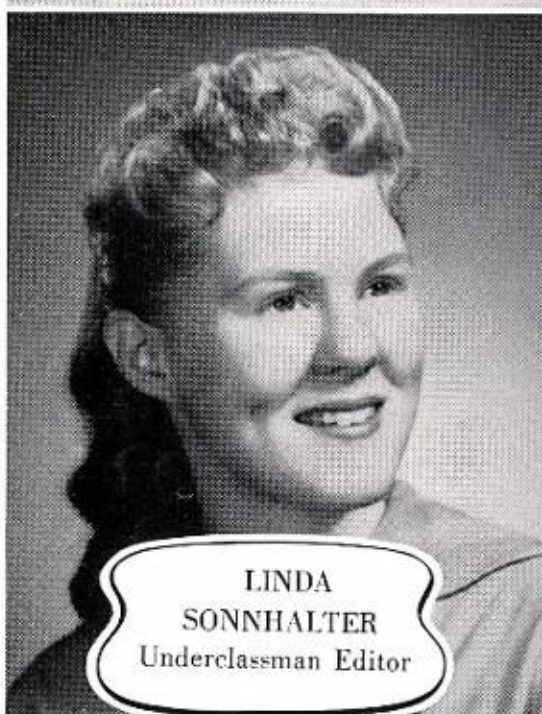

We hope that the students of Perry enjoy the book as much as the staff enjoyed putting it together!

Travel throughout the world and you will always find "buying" an exciting experience. But nowhere in the world is there a shopper's paradise that can compare to shopping in the United States.

Quality, quantity, and price are always taken into consideration by the discriminating buyer. In America, an individual can buy a product in a multitude of price ranges. Quality, of course, improves as does price.

Too often in the past Americans thought it chic to buy foreign products, but today, the smart buyer purchases American-made products because he knows that a reputable company will always stand behind a lenient guarantee.

Epitomizing America's business world is the scene at the left which shows Craig Procario in front of New York's lower Manhattan, where the famed Wall Street is located.

WELL DONE!

Diebold . . . a name synonymous with the ideas, the products that lead the banking and office equipment fields.

With a century of service behind us, we salute those of the Perry High Class of '61 who have everything ahead of them.

DIEBOLD

INCORPORATED

Tom Reigle is frozen in his tracks by a Glenwood player during the Panther-Eagle game. Glenwood's efforts proved futile as Perry downed the invaders in a hard fought game which ended with a 30-27 score. Evans, number 32, gets set to help his teammate.

My Dearest, Darling, Sweetheart Jack.

Oh, I will miss your big strong muscular body walking through the door to teach us another part of Algebra. Oh, If you were only 20 years younger or I were 20 years older. We're made for each other and I'll miss you so very much this summer. So until next fall when I can be in your arms again.

With all my Love

A loving student

Mr. Bowen
A teacher I've enjoyed having
in my class.
Carol Ballentine

Mr. Bowen,
One of the best teachers I've ever had. Lots of luck in all you.
Paul Christenson

MY DEAR MR. BOWEN,

POLLY WANTS

A CRACKER!!!

ROB HOFFMAN

Mr. Bowen,

Even though I hate math, I hated
Algebra even more.

Dave Visinger

Mr. "B"
One of the best
teachers I've ever had.
You've really given your all + every one appreciates it.
Thanks for everything, especially for the prom. A thankful student
Kent Harrison

Mr. Bowen,
Truly you are one of the best teachers at this school.
The class was very relaxing since
I slept through it. If I had have paid attention and done what you said I might have passed.
God Bless you and May you never have another student like me.
May I see you

Mr. Bowen,
One of the best teachers I have ever had. I really appreciate the way you taught algebra this year (even if you are vulgar, fat, mean, and make out with my girl).
Good Luck,
Jürgen

Mr. Bowen, teacher
As a great math teacher at this. Thanks for being such a good teacher and working week & time to make much. Thanks
Bob & Kelly

Mr. Bowen,
One of the best (if not ~~the~~ best) math teachers
I've ever had. I'll never forget this year.
Melinda Macarie "62"

Mr. Bowen
One of the best teachers I have known at Perry. I've had a good time and learned a lot in algebra.

Mr. Bowen Jon Butler
Truly one of the best teachers at Perry. I've enjoyed being in classes. Thanks for the wonderful times. Best Wishes
Dan Jeng
